Subject. Japanese Military Students Proceeding Through Settlement on December 4, 1938.

Forwarded by

J. Holtam

Sir,

On Sunday, 4th December 1938, the undersigned, accompanied by J.P.S.73, S. Katayama were ordered by Insp. Leslie to be at the Great Western Road Railway Crossing by 4.30p.m. to escort some trucks containing Japanese Military Students who wished to proceed along Settlement Roads to the Garden Bridge. The Students about 90 in number arrived at the crossing at about 5 p.m. in three Motor Trucks, but remained on the Western side of the crossing while they attempted to repair one of the trucks which was out of order.

While waiting J.P.S.73 accompanied by a Japanese Officer approached me and asked if the trucks could proceed by way of B'Well and Nanking Roads. I replied that they could, but suggested that it would be quicker if they went by way of Avenue 13, Wei-hai-wei and Foochow Roads. A conversation then took place between J.P.S.73 and the Officer, following which the J.P.S. informed me that the officer wished to proceed by way of B'Well and Nanking Roads, and I agreed to lead them by this route.

At about 5.40p.m. having failed to repair the disabled truck the students crowded into the remaining two trucks and J.P.S.73 informed me that they were ready to proceed. I then escorted them by way of Gt. Western Road, B'Well Road, Nanking Road and The Bund to the Garden Bridge, arriving there at about 6.05p.m.

The procession travelled in the following order, me myself and J.P.S.73 in the lead on a Motor Cycle followed by a Baby Austin Motor Car bearing S.D.F. plates and containing 3 officers with the two trucks bringing up the rear. I did not observe any untoward incidents while I was escorting them.

During the evening of December 4, between 5.40 p.m. and 7 p.m., copies of four different kinds of handbills were distributed by Japanese soldiers from two military trucks (No. unknown), while proceeding East on Nanking Road and Bubbling Well Road near the following places :-

- (1) Bubbling Well Road near Carter Road and Love Lane (5.40 p.m.)
- (2) Nanking Road, near Yu Ya Ching Road (5.47 p.m.)
- (3) Nanking Road near Kiangse Road (7 p.m.)

Two of these handbills purport to emanate from the "Asia Youth League (亞細亞青年同盟)," one from the Ishin Institution, now situated at the former site of Fudan University, Kiangwan, and one which does not give the source of origin.

Apart from the pre-Japanese propaganda contained therein, one which is entitled "An Advice to the Shanghai Brethren" urges the Chinese to abrogate the extraterritoriality rights now enjoyed by the foreigners, and to take back the Settlements.

Attached to this report are four copies of the handbills together with translation.

Translation of a handbill entitled "Back to the Native Place".

The problem of how to get back to your native places must have already entered your thoughts. Your failure to solve this problem would appear to be the result of false propaganda issued by the newspapers. You should know already that the news being circulated by the newspapers printed in the Settlement is not reliable. They are mouthpieces of the Kuomintang Government, and their object is to induce you to become their tools. All the news contained therein is fabricated. The facts which were placed before you with regard to the fall of Nanking, Hsuehow, Hankow and Canton serve as a good illustration and prove that those newspapers supplied the public with false stories in which they related victories for the Chinese Forces. Any one with common sense must realize now the tricks these newspapers have played.

The situation at present is normal in the inland cities and the propaganda circulated by the newspapers in connection with the activities of guerillas and the atrocities of the Japanese soldiers are all contrary to facts. Not only the inland cities enjoy peace, but there is also a sufficient supply of provisions, clothes and other daily necessities, and at cheaper prices than those prevailing in Shanghai.

The people living in Shanghai should not be hoodwinked further by the propaganda fabricated by the Kuomintang newspapers. We personally know of the peaceful state in the inland cities as we have just come from those places. District governments have been established, communication has been restored, and schools have been re-opened - furthermore, farmers' cooperative societies are in the course of formation and arrangements are being made to grant loans to the merchants in order to enable them to carry on their business.

Be prepared immediately to return to your lovely and long-departed native places.

Translation of a handbill entitled "Do Not Fear the Japanese - but cooperate with them in the manner of righteousness".

Dear fellow countrymen,

Despite the removal of the scene of hostilities, the people of New China appear to be still reluctant in trusting the Japanese soldiers and Japanese merchants. Because of fear, they maintain an obedient attitude, even although in certain cases the Japanese are wrong. Such an attitude is deemed incorrect, and we should maintain our self-dignity and work hand in hand with the Japanese in the spirit of righteousness. The Japanese are our brothers, the only difference between us being that they are educated and have excellent organizing ability. We should repent and change our attitude towards them which we previously held. From this date, we should cooperate in the manner of a big family - (East Asia) - with our sister nation. Dear fellow countrymen, there is only one way which stands before us and that is to be friendly towards the Japanese and to keep in close touch with them.

Translation of a handbill entitled "An advice to Shanghai Brethren"

Dear Brethren,

It is within our expectations that when this handbills reaches you, you will immediately throw it away without a perusal, and will further abuse the distributors as "traitors" and "swine." But we implore you to keep your temper, and spend a few minutes in reading the handbill, because it dwells upon the problems which immediately affect your.

Dear brethren, we are also the enthusiastic youth of China with hot blood in our veins, but our present concern is for the welfare of the Chinese Race. We are by no means selfish. We fully realize who our enemies are. Do you realise that you are living under the protection of "White People"? Then you must know who our enemies are. Who are the people responsible for the present war. Who are the people standing by our side with base ideas and watching for a chance to obtain privileges out of the war? It is true that Japan is fighting for her existence, but on the other hand, she is fighting because she cannot tolerate seeing the Chinese people who are of the same race being exploited and oppressed by an alien people. You are still living under the genuine enemy and at their mercy - but do you think that such condition can last long which permits a feeling of patriotism in carrying out national salvation work? The truth is that the Settlements are the places, where national sovereignty has been lost. It is a national humiliation. Let us eradicate this and advocate (1) the Great Asia Munro Doctrine (2) the abrogation of extraterritoriality, and (3) rendition of Settlements.

During the evening of December 4, between 5.40 p.m. and 7 p.m., copies of four different kinds of handbills were distributed by Japanese soldiers from two military trucks (No. unknown), while proceeding East on Nanking Road and Bubbling Well Road near the following places :-

- (1) Bubbling Well Road near Carter Road and Love Lane (5.40 p.m.)
- (2) Nanking Road, near Yu Ya Ching Road (5.47 p.m.)
- (3) Nanking Road near Kiangse Road (7 p.m.)

Two of these handbills purport to emanate from the "Asia Youth League (亞細亞青年同盟)," one from the Ishin Institution, now situated at the former site of Putan University, Kiangwan, and one which does not give the source of origin.

Apart from the pre-Japanese propaganda contained therein, one which is entitled "An Advice to the Shanghai Brethren" urges the Chinese to abrogate the extraterritoriality rights now enjoyed by the foreigners, and to take back the Settlements.

Attached to this report are four copies of the handbills together with translation.

Our families are separated by war. War gives us unemployment. We have tolerated the sufferings caused by the war long enough - now we expect peace.

Let us shout :

"By overthrowing the Communist Party
we can live in peace."

"By supporting the new regime China can live in brightness."

"Long live New China."

"Long live peace in East Asia."

The problem of how to get back to your native places must have already entered your thoughts. Your failure to solve this problem would appear to be the result of false propaganda issued by the newspapers. You should know already that the news being circulated by the newspapers printed in the Settlement is not reliable. They are mouthpieces of the Kuomintang Government, and their object is to induce you to become their tools. All the news contained therein is fabricated. The facts which were placed before you with regard to the fall of Nanking, Haichow, Hankow and Canton serve as a good illustration and prove that these newspapers supplied the public with false stories in which they related victories for the Chinese Forces. Any one with common sense must realize now the tricks these newspapers have played.

The situation at present is normal in the inland cities and the propaganda circulated by the newspapers in connection with the activities of guerillas and the atrocities of the Japanese soldiers are all contrary to facts. Not only the inland cities enjoy peace, but there is also a sufficient supply of provisions, clothes and other daily necessities, and at cheaper prices than those prevailing in Shanghai.

The people living in Shanghai should not be hoodwinked further by the propaganda fabricated by the Kuomintang newspapers. We personally know of the peaceful state in the inland cities as we have just come from those places. District governments have been established, communication has been restored, and schools have been re-opened - furthermore, farmers' cooperative societies are in the course of formation and arrangements are being made to grant loans to the merchants in order to enable them to carry on their business.

Be prepared immediately to return to your lovely and long-departed native places.

Translation of a handbill entitled "Do Not Fear the Japanese - but cooperate with them in the manner of righteousness".

Dear fellow countrymen,

Despite the removal of the scene of hostilities, the people of New China appear to be still reluctant in trusting the Japanese soldiers and Japanese merchants. Because of fear, they maintain an obedient attitude, even although in certain cases the Japanese are wrong. Such an attitude is deemed incorrect, and we should maintain our self-dignity and work hand in hand with the Japanese in the spirit of righteousness.
The Japanese are our brothers, the only difference between us being that they are educated and have excellent organizing ability. We should repent and change our attitude towards them which we previously held. From this date, we should cooperate in the manner of a big family - (East Asia) - with our sister nation.

Dear fellow countrymen, there is only one way which stands before us and that is to be friendly towards the Japanese and to keep in close touch with them.

Translation of a handbill entitled "An advice to Shanghai Brethren"

Dear Brethren,

It is within our expectations that when this handbills reaches you, you will immediately throw it away without a perusal, and will further abuse the distributors as "traitors" and "swine." But we implore you to keep your temper, and spend a few minutes in reading the handbill, because it dwells upon the problems which immediately affect your.

Dear brethren, we are also the enthusiastic youth of China with hot blood in our veins, but our present concern is for the welfare of the Chinese Race. We are by no means selfish. We fully realize who our enemies are. Do you realise that you are living under the protection of "White People"? Then you must know who our enemies are. Who are the people responsible for the present war. Who are the people standing by our side with base ideas and watching for a chance to obtain privileges out of the war? It is true that Japan is fighting for her existence, but on the other hand, she is fighting because she cannot tolerate seeing the Chinese people who are of the same race being exploited and oppressed by an alien people. You are still living under the genuine enemy and at their mercy - but do you think that such condition can last long which permits a feeling of patriotism in carrying out national salvation work? The truth is that the Settlements are the places, where national sovereignty has been lost. It is a national humiliation. Let us eradicate this and advocate (1) the Great Asia Munro Doctrine (2) the abrogation of extraterritoriality, and (3) rendition of Settlements.
